

Recruitment Sub Committee of North Ayrshire Council
6 May 2004

Irvine, 6 May 2004 - At a Meeting of the Recruitment Sub Committee of North Ayrshire Council at 3.30 p.m.

Present

David O'Neill, Drew Duncan, Margaret McDougall, Elizabeth McLardy, Peter McNamara, David Munn, Alan Munro, Samuel Taylor and Richard Wilkinson.

In Attendance

D. Sinclair, Chief Executive (Fife Council); S. Ferguson, Personnel Manager (Personnel); and G. Lawson, Head of Corporate and Democratic Support (Chief Executive's).

Chair

Councillor O'Neill in the Chair.

Apologies for Absence

Alan Hill and John Reid.

1. Exclusion of the Public

The Sub Committee resolved in terms of Section 50(A)4 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, to exclude from the Meeting the press and the public for the following item of business on the grounds indicated in terms of Paragraph 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 7A of the Act.

2. Interviews for the Post of Chief Executive

The Chair advised the Sub Committee of the procedure to be adopted in interviewing candidates for the post of Chief Executive. The Sub Committee would select initially a long-list of candidates who would be interviewed by an independent panel comprising the Chief Executives of Fife Council and Aberdeenshire Council along with the former Chief Executive of Glasgow City Council. The panel would recommend to the Sub Committee a number of candidates for final interview and the Sub Committee would consider the recommendation, draw up a short-list and conduct the final interviews.

Submitted applications received for the post of Chief Executive.

Having considered the applications for the post the Sub Committee agreed to select 9 candidates for the long-list interview.

The Meeting ended at 4.15 p.m.