1. Convener's Remarks

The Convener referred to the fact that this was the final Council meeting of North Ayrshire Council's first administration. He stated that he had taken a great deal of satisfaction from the successes which North Ayrshire Council had achieved during its first administration and that these successes would provide a solid base for the Council in future years.

The Convener paid tribute to all members of the Council for the hard work which they had put in over the four year period and also paid tribute to the officers of the Council for their own valued contribution. The Convener also referred to the fact that he was now retiring from local government and on a personal level offered North Ayrshire Council his sincere best wishes for the future.

Council members responded accordingly.
