Scottish Fire and Rescue Service Consultation Draft Strategic Plan 2022-2025 Response from North Ayrshire Council

Background

The Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) is undertaking a Consultation on the draft Strategic Plan for 2022 - 2025 that outlines proposals for the forthcoming years to deliver a fire and rescue service that work towards the overall purpose, as outlined in the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022:

'To work in partnership with communities and with others in the public, private and third sectors on prevention, protection and response to improve the safety and wellbeing of people throughout Scotland.'

The Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022 sets out seven strategic priorities which the SFRS have a statutory duty to have regard to these when developing their Strategic Plan:

- Prevention and Protection
- Response
- Innovation and Modernisation
- Climate Change
- Effective Governance and Performance
- Partnership
- People

Consultation Request

SFRS have asked for our views on the proposed strategic plan. Due to the summer recess and the Committee timetabling, this response has not yet been put to Elected Members on the Police and Fire and Rescue Committee. Accordingly, there may be additional matters that are submitted in this regard.

This draft Strategic Plan 2022-2025 sets out what our broad ambitions will be over the next three years. The plan wishes to deliver the following broad outcomes that complement the strategic priorities of the referred to Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland and are as narrated in the draft plan as:-

1. Community safety and wellbeing improves as we deploy targeted initiatives to prevent emergencies and harm.

2. Communities are safer and more resilient as we respond effectively to changing risks.
3. We value and demonstrate innovation across all areas of our work.
4. We respond to the impacts of climate change in Scotland and reduce our carbon emissions.
5. We are a thriving organisation, use our resources responsibly and provide value for money to the public.
6. The experience of those who work for SFRS improves as we are the best employer we can be.
7. Community safety and wellbeing improves as we work effectively with our partners.

Response

The Council recognises that all public services need to ensure that they are fit to serve and meet the needs of local communities in accordance with the principles of the Christie Commission. The Council therefore welcomes the general proposals contained in the consultation document and would make the further following comments:-

- The contribution of SFRS to Community Planning should continue and resources should be made available to deliver local outcomes and improvement plans. The Council welcomes the renewed commitment and focus on partnership working.
- The preventative strategy is welcomed to improve outcomes for communities and protect people from harm. It is recognised that this is an increased area of demand with our aging population and the work being done by SFRS in assisting to keep people safe and prevent them from coming to harm is a valuable contributor to public service delivery. The Council fully supports the commitment to working with communities, partners and stakeholders to produce and disseminate safety advice and information effectively. Working in collaboration in this regard makes good sense.
- Recognising the diversity of local areas and the specific needs of communities is vital. The Council welcomes that SFRS is building upon our knowledge of and responding to the changing risks and inequalities faced by our communities. This is further to the learning experiences from the COIVD-19 pandemic.
- SFRS should continue to engage with local communities to build confidence in the service and establish and foster relationships with a view to the prevention agenda and supporting communities. The SFRS is a well-respected emergency service.
- The objective of early intervention is welcomed as this will not only lead to reduction in demand but will build community capacity and responsibility for individual safety and property
- It is noted that there is an objective of responding more efficiently responding to false fire alarm calls and improving road safety by reducing the number of blue light journeys that are required to be made. This is welcomed given that this diverts the availability of services from other areas of potential need. The Council welcomes actions to tackle this issue on an ongoing basis.

- The people strategy is welcomed. The contribution of SFRS as an employer in the local area makes a difference in the local economy and community as a whole and the continued availability and retention of quality local jobs should be a priority as a contributor to the area. The Council notes the commitment to paying the living wage for employees and developing and deploying new and more agile ways of working to protect the safety, wellbeing, physical and mental health of staff.
- Governance and accountability should form a key part of monitoring the implementation of the strategic plan to ensure that outcomes are met.
- Investment in IT and digital solutions is recognised as key in developing a modern fire and rescue service which is fit for purpose. The innovative use of technology, data and information to change how the organisation works is welcomed and is crucial in service delivery post Covid pandemic and beyond.
- It is noted that the draft plan refers to strategically placing specialist resources in areas where there is a greater risk of flooding. This is something that was raised and considered in the previous response by this Council to the 2019-2022 plan, and it is beneficial to see its inclusion again within the plan for the benefit of local communities that are affected by such.
- The Council notes OUTCOME FOUR: Respond to the impacts of climate change in Scotland and reduce our carbon emissions. This is an important outcome in the context of the national and worldwide position. Accordingly, the commitment to investing further in the greening of fleet by acquiring zero emission vehicles where appropriate and supporting staff to adopt changes and behaviour to support more environmentally friendly working practices is welcomed. This is something that will be of interest to Elected Members on the Committee on an ongoing basis as to the progress thereon at a local and national level.

Comments on current service provision

We have an excellent working relationship with the Local Area Commander and his officers both at strategic and operational level. The positive level of engagement of SFRS at the Police Fire and Rescue Committee has been most welcome.

The approach of localism is vital with local commanders being empowered to deliver services according to local needs and demands. In North Ayrshire we have excellent working relationships with SFRS which delivers well for our communities.

Strategic Plan

2022-2025

1. INTRODUCTION

We are delighted to introduce the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) Strategic Plan 2022-2025

As we approach our 10th anniversary in 2023, this is our fourth Strategic Plan and the first one that aligns to our Long-Term Vision for the Service which we published in 2021. In our Vision we set out our ambitions to be a progressive organisation, centred around people's needs, inclusive of all and better connected to our communities. This Plan marks the next steps towards realising that Vision. It also builds on our organisational Values, demonstrates our commitment to further modernising the Service by doing more for our communities and changing how we work. It further strengthens our approach to prevention while maintaining an excellent emergency response and addressing the repair and replacement challenges within our estate.

This Plan will deliver against the strategic priorities set out for the Service by the Scottish Government in the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022. It comes at an important time for Scotland as we recover and learn lessons from COVID-19. In response to the pandemic and to help Scotland recover from its impacts, the Scottish Government has committed to:

- Developing a progressive, wellbeing economy for Scotland
- Building public services on a person-centred basis
- Addressing issues of systemic social and economic inequality
- Strengthening partnership working across public services

2. WHAT IS THE STRATEGIC PLAN 2022-25?

The SFRS was established in April 2013. Since then we have produced strategic plans every three years to detail the activities we undertake to contribute to the safety and wellbeing of Scotland's communities, whilst keeping our firefighters safe.

This Strategic Plan outlines the high-level outcomes through which we will continually work towards our overall purpose, as outlined in the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022: 'To work in partnership with communities and with others in the public, private and third sectors on prevention, protection and response to improve the safety and wellbeing of people throughout Scotland.'

The Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland 2022 also sets for us seven strategic priorities and we have a statutory duty to have regard to these when developing our Strategic Plan:

- Prevention and Protection
- Effective Governance and Performance
- Partnership
- Response
- Innovation and Modernisation
- People
- Climate Change

SFRS Long-Term Vision

As well as considering the Fire Framework, this Strategic Plan supports the achievement of our SFRS Long-Term Vision. Our Vision is an aspirational document which was shaped by our staff and stakeholders. It sets out our future direction and outlines where we want to be in ten years' time. This Plan outlines the next stage in that journey.

Our Plan has been developed with these important documents in mind, with our seven Outcomes complementing the strategic priorities of the Fire and Rescue Framework for Scotland. We have developed this Plan in consultation with our people, a range of our partners across the country and the people of Scotland.

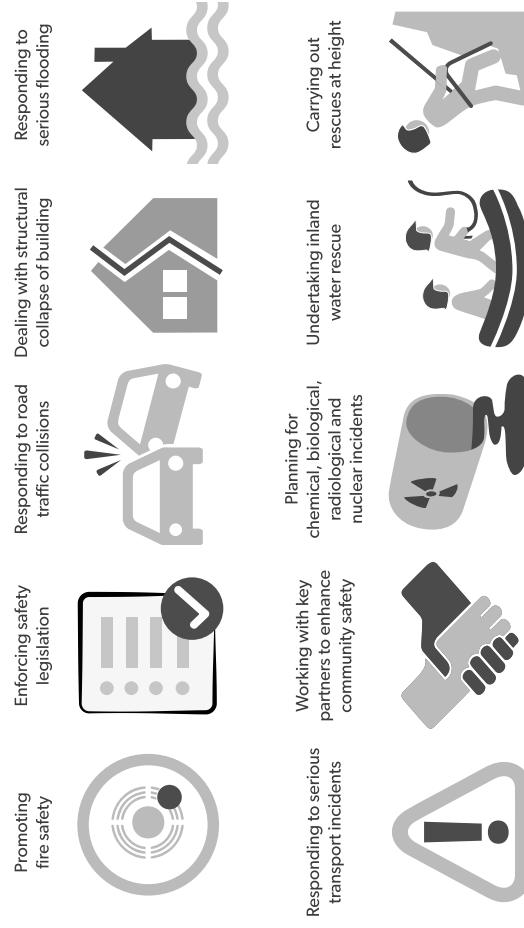

Finally, the commitments within this Plan are only possible because of the excellent work of all our people. They are truly inspirational and we would like to thank them all for everything they do for each other and the people of Scotland. We would also like to thank our partners and communities who we proudly serve and who support us in what we do.

3. HOW WE HELPED TO KEEP SCOTLAND SAFE DURING 2020/21

4. OUR SERVICE, OUR AMBITIONS FOR SCOTLAND'S COMMUNITIES

We are the fourth largest fire and rescue service in the world. Our key role will always be to respond to fires and other emergency incidents but we do much more than that. In communities across Scotland, you'll find us:

Responding to structural collapse of building
Promoting fire safety
Enforcing safety legislation
Responding to road traffic collisions
Responding to serious flooding
Planning for chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear incidents
Working with key partners to enhance community safety

Undertaking inland water rescue
Carrying out rescues at height
Working with key partners to enhance community safety
Planning for chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear incidents
Working with key partners to enhance community safety
Undertaking inland water rescue
Carrying out rescues at height

We firmly believe that the best way to deal with any type of emergency is to try and stop it from happening in the first place. With a key focus on prevention, particularly in support of the most vulnerable members of society, we work with our partners across the country to deliver: crucial fire safety campaigns; prevention interventions; and work on a wide range of public safety initiatives that keep people and businesses safe. Because of this and because our firefighters, both daytime and on call, are so valued within their communities, we have an ambition to develop our offer to Scotland. As we develop this offer we must ensure that the facilities and equipment we use are of the highest standard. They need to be modern, purpose designed for the 21st century and safe for our people. This will help us retain those who currently work for us while attracting new people to help us become a more diverse organisation that reflects the communities of modern Scotland.

We will keep improving people's lives and the safety and wellbeing of the communities we serve; by reducing the risk from harm and working in collaboration with our partners and communities.

5. OUR OPERATING ENVIRONMENT FOR THE NEXT 3 YEARS

People	The delivery of this Plan will be influenced by the following challenges we face within our operating environment and how we will work to resolve them. Recovering and learning from COVID-19 Throughout the pandemic, we adapted swiftly alongside our partners to provide life-saving and innovative services for our communities. The impacts of the pandemic are not over and will have a lasting effect on us, communities and businesses over the years ahead. It is imperative that we put key lessons we have learned from the pandemic into place to help us, and Scotland, fully recover. Flexibility Being a more flexible organisation was key to how we responded to the COVID-19 pandemic. We will maintain our agile and flexible approach to deliver what is required of us by our communities. This means avoiding a “one size fits all” mentality and approach so that we can respond to differing community needs appropriately. Service Modernisation We will develop our offer to communities as an emergency service based on a better understanding of changing risk and reshape the use of our resources and service activities. However, achieving more to support and safeguard our communities within existing resources will be our biggest challenge. Budgeting Responsibly Over the next three years we will face significant budgetary pressures in both our resource and capital budgets. We will be faced with high levels of inflation in the goods and services we need to purchase to deliver our services. We are likely to see challenges emerging for our people around the increased cost of living and the pressures this places on them and their households. We also face a significant and growing investment need in our estate which requires ongoing decarbonisation. Our buildings are ageing and many require substantial upgrading or replacement. Failure to invest in our estate will add further pressure to our resource budget as we increasingly spend more money to overcome the repair costs that come from an ageing set of buildings. We will	arrive at better decisions which will make us a stronger and more successful organisation. Managing Change We have and will continue to run large change projects across the Service. Projects can range from introducing new technology systems, undertaking large scale building projects, working with suppliers to develop new types of emergency response vehicles, to changing the ways we work. Throughout the duration of this Plan we will further improve how we manage projects to ensure their effective and efficient delivery. Engagement and Empowerment To make good decisions you need to engage people in the decision-making process and empower them to make appropriate choices for themselves. We are committed to working this way, both with our own people and with our communities. This will help us Demographic Change People are living longer and care will increasingly shift from institutional settings towards home-based care. This change will generate new demands as Scotland seeks to support our population to age well in safe and resilient communities, while we work to reduce the risk of fire and other forms of unintentional harm within homes. We will continue our crucial work with communities and our partners to prevent such harm from happening and develop our service offer in supporting the vulnerable members of Scotland's communities. Place We are a national service delivered locally. We are committed to understanding the changing risks across the country and meeting community needs in ways that work best for them. We will support the wider public service reform agenda of adopting a place-based approach to how public services are designed and delivered. This will shape how we work to ensure that our communities are safer, stronger and more resilient. Resilience We play an important role helping communities become more resilient. Whether in safeguarding people and communities against the impacts of a pandemic, the effects of adverse weather events, dealing with the threat of terrorism and much more. There remains a vital need and a statutory duty for us to work with our communities and emergency service partners to prepare better to meet these threats as they evolve over time.

OUTCOME ONE:

Community safety and wellbeing improves as we deploy targeted initiatives to prevent emergencies and harm.

WHAT WE WILL DO

We firmly believe that preventing problems from arising is better than dealing with them when they occur. Our approach to prevention helps people, communities and the economy stay safe and enables us to support work addressing wider inequalities. As we did during the pandemic, we will continue to share data appropriately with our partners to protect the vulnerable in our communities. To support Scotland's economy we will continue to enforce and provide advice around fire safety legislation to business owners in shops, offices, workshops and factories. We will further expand our prevention work to Scottish households and develop our prevention approaches to influence people's behaviours to help keep themselves safe and improve their wellbeing. We will build on the work with our partners to target education and safety initiatives to those who need it most, including the young and the vulnerable. We will develop our home fire safety visit programme to incorporate wider health and social care considerations and develop a coordinated approach to reducing unintentional harm throughout Scotland.
