16 Dec 2020	MJA	Council agreed to the following revisals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reservations to Council and remit of the Planning Committee- To reflect changes introduced by the Planning (Scotland) Act 2019, that major applications are no longer delegated to Council. Instead these would be determined by the Planning Committee; • Appeals Committee-To remove the requirement that one of the Members of an Appeals Committee must be a Member of the Staffing and Recruitment Committee. In practice this was often difficult to achieve; • To change the functions delegated to the Ayrshire Regional Economic Partnership, to reflect those now detailed in the signed Ayrshire Growth Deal Document. The changes largely relate to the fact that gateway reviews are no longer required; • Other changes are minor, either for clarification or to deal with typos.
