4. Presentation by Strathclyde Police

The Convener welcomed to the meeting Chief Superintendent A Cameron, the Divisional Commander of 'U' Division, Strathclyde Police, along with Superintendents S Thompson, D Johnstone and J Young who had been invited to give a presentation to the Members of the Council.

Chief Superintendent Cameron, along with his accompanying officers gave a review of the past twelve months of policing within North Ayrshire along with details of their targets for the forthcoming year. They referred to the targets which had been set for the previous year which showed that in performance terms good results had been received. The aims for 1997/98 were in line with Operation Spotlight and Strathclyde Police intend to adopt a partnership approach in line with the Spotlight philosophy.

Following the presentation the officers of Strathclyde Police responded to questions put to them by Members of the Council.

Thereafter the Convener on behalf of the Council thanked the representatives of Strathclyde Police for their informative presentation.

The meeting ended at 6.00 p.m.
