4. Freemen of North Ayrshire

The Convener announced his pleasure in proposing that Councillor James Jennings has been nominated to be the first Freeman of North Ayrshire. The Convener stated that this was a well deserved award in view of Mr. Jennings' long and distinguished career in Local Government and further stated that arrangements would now be put in place by himself and the Chief Executive and an appropriate ceremony to be held.

Mr. Jennings responded to the Convener's remarks by acknowledging the proposal as a great honour to himself and his family.

The Meeting ended at 5.20 p.m.
