North Ayrshire Council

Title: Review of the Scheme of the Establishment of Community Councils

Purpose: To seek Council's authorisation to carry out a review of the current North Ayrshire Council Community Council Scheme of Establishment.

Recommendation: That the Council agrees to proceed with a formal review of the Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils on the basis of the timetable set out at Appendix 1

1. Executive Summary

- 1.1 Statutory provision for Community Councils is contained in the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (The "1973 Act") and Section 22 of the Local Government Etc (Scotland) Act 1994 (the "1994" Act) The 1973 Act identifies the general purpose of a Community Council as being "to ascertain, coordinate and express the views of the community which it represents, in relation to such matters for which those authorities are responsible, and to take such action in the interests of that community as appear to it to be expedient and practicable."
- 1.2 The current North Ayrshire Scheme (Appendix 2) was adopted by the Council on 30 March 2016 and provides for seventeen community councils, thirteen of which (Arran, Beith & District, Cumbrae, Dalry, Dreghorn, Fairlie, Irvine, Kilbirnie & Glengarnock, Kilwinning, Largs, Skelmorlie, Stevenston and West Kilbride) are active at present. Since the publication of this Scheme, the Scottish Government published an updated Model Scheme of Establishment in 2023. It is suggested that Council commences a review the Scheme of Establishment.
- 1.3 It is anticipated that, following the review of the Community Council Scheme of Establishment, there will continue to be provision for a community council serving each community within North Ayrshire, with a cluster of community councils (i) sitting within the boundary of each of the six Locality Partnership areas and (ii) supporting the Health and Social Care locality planning arrangements.

2. Background

- 2.1 Section 22(2) of the 1994 Act allows local authorities to revoke a community council scheme (or an amended scheme) and make a new scheme. Public notice must be given of this intention, inviting the public to make suggestions as to the areas and composition of community councils within a period of no fewer than eight weeks from the date of the notice.

2.2 After considering the outcome of the initial 8-week consultation period, the Council is required to prepare and give public notice of a draft scheme, which is itself subject to an eight-week consultation period and includes:

- (i) A map showing the boundaries of the proposed areas of community councils and their populations, and the boundaries of any area for which the local authority concerned consider a community council to be unnecessary.
- (ii) Where a local authority consider that a community council is unnecessary for any area, a statement of their reasons for arriving at that conclusion.
- (iii) Provisions relating to the qualifications of electors, elections or other voting arrangements, composition, meetings, financing and accounts of community councils.
- (iv) Provisions concerning the procedures to be adopted by which community councils on one hand and local and public authorities with responsibilities in the areas of the community councils on the other will keep each other informed on matters of mutual interest.
- (v) Such other information as, in the opinion of the local authority, will help the public to make a reasonable appraisal of the scheme.

2.3 The Council should then consider any representations made in terms of the draft Scheme and give public notice of any amendments to the proposals, inviting the public to make representations during a further four-week consultation period. Following this, the amended scheme can be formally adopted and public notice given.

2.4 Each stage of the formal consultation process should be considered at a Special North Ayrshire Council meeting in accordance with statute. All decisions taken by Council in respect of the review of the Scheme of Establishment require to be approved by two thirds of the Members voting at the meeting in accordance with section 53 (3) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973. A draft timetable for the review is attached at Appendix 1.

3. Proposals

3.1 That Council agrees:

- a) To proceed with the formal review of the Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils on the basis of the timetable set out at Appendix 1;
- b) That consideration should be given to updating the Scheme in line with the Model Scheme of Establishment that was issued by the Scottish Government in 2023; and
- c) To receive future reports to Special Meetings of Council in relation to the review of the Scheme of Establishment of Community Councils.

4. Implications/Socio-economic Duty

Financial

4.1 The cost of public notices and furthering any review will be met from existing budgets.

Human Resources

4.2 None

Legal

4.3 Provision for the establishment and review of community councils is contained within the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and Local Government Etc (Scotland) Act 1994.

Equality/Socio-economic

4.4 None arising from this report. The appropriate assessments will be undertaken through the period of review of the Scheme of Establishment for Community Councils.

Climate Change and Carbon

4.5 None

Key Priorities

4.6 The effective establishment and delivery of Community Councils directly contributes to the 'Communities and Local Democracy' priority of Our Council Plan.

Community Wealth Building

4.7 None.

5. Consultation

5.1 Legal Services have confirmed that the proposed review arrangements meet the relevant legislation. In addition to the public consultation exercise outlined in the proposed review timetable, it is intended that Elected Members, Community Councils and Senior Officers of the Council will be consulted separately for their views.

North Ayrshire Council

Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils in North Ayrshire

1. Background

In 1976, the former Cunninghame District Council prepared a Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils in accordance with Section 52 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973. The Scheme was subsequently reviewed and amended in 1987 in terms of Section 53 of the Act and, in 1996, was adopted by North Ayrshire Council. Following appropriate public consultation, the Scheme has been further revised and the present Scheme was adopted by the Council on 30 March 2016.

In terms of the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015, North Ayrshire Community Planning Partnership must divide North Ayrshire into smaller localities and publish a locality plan for each of its localities. This plan must set out the priorities for the locality and proposed improvements. North Ayrshire Community Planning Partnership has divided North Ayrshire into six localities:-

- Irvine
- Kilwinning
- The Three Towns
- Garnock Valley
- Arran
- The North Coast and Cumbraes

Within each area, there will be a Locality Partnership on which each Community Council may be represented. The core aim of such Locality Partnerships is to develop the Locality Plan and seek to align the priorities and work of Community Planning Partners, Community Councils and the community towards the implementation of the Plan's priorities. Each Community Council will be expected to play a full part in its Locality Partnership, and in the development of the relevant Locality Plan. A charter will be developed to outline more fully the relationship between individual Community Councils and Locality Partnerships.

2. Role and Responsibilities of Community Councils

- (1) In terms of Section 51(2) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, the purpose of a Community Council, in addition to any other purpose which it may pursue, shall be "to ascertain, co-ordinate and express to the local authorities for its area, and to public authorities, the views of the community which it represents, in relation to matters for which those authorities are responsible, and to take such action in the interests of that community as appears to it to be expedient and practicable".
- (2) Community Councils should seek to represent a full cross-section of the community. This means that Community Councils must not be party-political and must seek to promote equality and good relations between all members of the community.

- (3) Each Community Council should endeavour to ensure that its views are seen to be representative of the community as a whole. To this end, Community Councils should have in place consultative mechanisms to validate their views and devise strategies to secure greater community involvement.

3. Community Councils to be Established in North Ayrshire

- (1) There is provision for the operation of seventeen Community Councils in North Ayrshire as set out in Annexe 1 to the Scheme and detailed in the Community Council Boundary Map (Annexe 2 to the Scheme).
- (2) Every part of North Ayrshire lies within the area of one or other of the seventeen Community Councils. No Community Council shall be precluded from expressing views on, or taking action in relation to, any matter which affects, or will affect, the community solely on the ground that the matter is related primarily to land or property beyond the boundaries of the area of the Community Council.

4. Composition of Community Councils

Each Community Council may comprise the undernoted categories of member:-

(i) Elected Community Councillors

Each Community Council shall be composed primarily of Elected Community Councillors who must fulfil the qualifications for election set out in Paragraph 6 below. Elected Community Councillors shall be entitled to vote and hold office and their attendance shall form part of the quorum of Community Council meetings (set out at Paragraph 15(4) and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme).

The maximum number of members with voting rights on each Community Council shall be as prescribed in Paragraph 5 below and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme.

(ii) Co-opted Community Councillors

Community Councils shall be entitled to fill casual vacancies either by election or by co-option. Co-opted Community Councillors must fulfil the qualifications for election set out in Paragraph 5 below, shall be entitled to vote and hold office and their attendance shall form part of the quorum of Community Council meetings (set out at Paragraph 15(4) and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme).

(iii) Appointed Advisors

The Community Council shall also be entitled to co-opt a number of Appointed Advisors to represent local organisations or groups of organisations within the area of the Community Council in an advisory capacity. The co-option of Appointed Advisors also provides an opportunity to involve young people or other individuals who may not qualify for election as Elected Community Councillors.

The number of Appointed Advisors on a Community Council shall not at any time exceed one half of the maximum number of Community Councillors prescribed in Paragraph 5 below and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme.

Appointed Advisors do not require to fulfil the qualifications for election as Elected Community Councillors, shall not have voting rights, are not entitled to hold office and their attendance shall not form part of the quorum of Community Council meetings (set out at Paragraph 15(4) and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme).

(iv) Ex Officio Members

The local Elected Member(s), Member(s) of Parliament and Member(s) of the Scottish Parliament for the area covered by the Community Council shall be ex officio members of the Community Council for their area. Such ex officio members shall be entitled to attend and address all meetings of the Community Council, but their attendance shall not form part of the quorum (as set out at Paragraph 15(4) and summarised in Annexe 1 to the Scheme) and they shall not be entitled to vote.”

5. Number of Elected Community Councillors on Each Community Council

The number of Community Councillors with voting rights on each Community Council shall be:-

- (i) In the case of Arran Community Council, twelve;
- (ii) In the case of Beith and District Community Council, ten;
- (iii) In the case of each of the other fifteen Community Councils:-

either seven or one for each thousand of the population of the area of the Community Council, rounded up to the nearest thousand whichever is the greater; and

- (iv) notwithstanding the provisions set out in (i), (ii) and (iii) above, a Community Council may, in order to encourage greater community participation, request that its membership be increased. Such increases shall be permitted at the discretion of the Council and the quorum/minimum viable membership of the Community Council in question shall be amended in accordance with the higher membership figure.

6. Qualifications for Election, or Service, as an Elected Community Councillor

In order to qualify for nomination as a Community Councillor, a person shall:-

- (i) have attained the age of 16 years and not be subject to any legal incapacity; and
- (ii) be, on the date on which he/she is nominated as a candidate, a local government elector for the area of the Community Council, or otherwise prove to the satisfaction of the Council that he/she are resident within the Community Council area in question.

7. Term of Office of Community Councillors

The term of office of Community Councils shall be as set out below:-

(i) Elected Community Councillors

All Elected Community Councillors elected at the Initial Election to any Community Council shall hold office for a period not exceeding four years from the date of the Initial Election and shall then retire. Thereafter, all Elected Community Councillors shall hold office as Community Councillors for a period not exceeding four years from the date of their election and shall then retire.

Community Councils may, to provide some continuity in the running of the Community Council, vary their constitutions to provide for half of the Elected Community Councillors retiring after a period of two years in the first instance and, thereafter, being eligible for further periods of four years.

(ii) Co-opted Community Councillors and Appointed Advisors

All Co-opted Community Councillors and Appointed Advisors shall retire with the Elected Community Councillors.

- (iii) All retiring Elected and Co-opted Community Councillors and Appointed Advisors shall be eligible for re-election or co-option.

- (iv) All Community Councillors, prior to taking up office, must sign an acceptable document which confirms that they will comply with the terms of the Code of Conduct for Community Councillors published by the Scottish Government (see Annexe 5).

8. Casual Vacancies

- (i) On a casual vacancy occurring in the office of Elected Community Councillor, the Council shall decide whether:-
  - (a) to fill the vacancy by a By-Election carried out in accordance with the timetable and procedures for an Ordinary Election; or
  - (b) to fill the vacancy by co-opting a person qualified in terms of Paragraph 6 of this Scheme to serve on the Community Council until the next Ordinary Election; or
  - (c) to leave the vacancy unfilled until the next Ordinary Election.

- (ii) In the case of a casual vacancy arising in Arran Community Council, every effort should be made to ensure that the vacancy is filled by a person from the relevant Extended Village.

9. Method of Election of Elected Community Councillors

- (i) Elections of Elected Community Councillors shall ordinarily be held on a community basis at a community meeting arranged for that purpose. Contested elections shall be determined by secret ballot (in accordance with Annexe 4 to the Scheme).
- (ii) In the case of Arran Community Council, because of the very scattered nature of the community, such elections shall ordinarily be held on an Extended Village basis at a village meetings in each of the following Extended Villages:-

Arran Community Council:

Extended Village	Number to be Elected
(a) Brodick	2
(b) Corrie (including Sannox)	1
(c) Kilmory (including Kildonan)	1
(d) Lamlash	2
(e) Lochranza	1
(f) Pirnmill	1
(g) Shiskine (inc.Blackwaterfoot)	2
(h) Whiting Bay	2

The boundaries of the area of each Extended Village are defined in the map contained in Annexe 3 to the Scheme.

- (iii) Notwithstanding the requirements set out at (ii) above, the Council may exercise discretion in terms of the imposition of the Extended Village provisions.

10. Initial Community Council Elections

Where no fewer than 20 electors in any area have applied in writing to the Council for the establishment of a Community Council in accordance with the Scheme, the Council will, as quickly as possible and, in any event, within six weeks from the date of the application, organise an initial election of Elected Community Councillors as follows:-

- (i) The Council shall arrange a public meeting for the area in question for the purpose of electing Community Councillors. In the case of Arran Community Council, a separate meeting shall be arranged for each Extended Village as set out in Paragraph 9 above.
- (ii) At least 28 days before the election meeting(s), the Council shall publish in the local press and on public notice boards in the area, a notice giving particulars of the date, time and place at which the meeting(s) is/are to be held and inviting local government electors for that Community Council area (or, in the case of Arran Community Council, that Extended Village) to attend. The notice shall also call for nominations in writing to the Council.

- (iii) Each nomination must contain the name, address and signature of the person nominated and the names and addresses of two proposers, each of whom must also be a local government elector for the Community Council area. A local government elector may propose a maximum of two nominees for election as Community Councillors. Each nomination paper must be signed by the person nominated and by each of the two proposers.
- (iv) The closing date for the submission of written nominations shall be seven days prior to the date of the election meeting. At the discretion of the Council, where a nomination is received by the closing date but is, upon examination, found to contain the name of a proposer who does not appear on the electoral register, the nomination may be accepted as having been lodged in good faith, subject to details of a suitably qualified proposer being submitted by the nominee, within a timescale to be determined by the Council.
- (v) At the election meeting, the Chair will be taken by a member of the Council. The business of the meeting will be:-
  - (a) such discussion of the affairs of the Community as the Chair, at his or her discretion and having regard to the time available, shall permit; and
  - (b) if the number of persons duly nominated exceeds the prescribed number of Elected Community Councillors for that Community Council area (or, in the case of Arran Community Council, that Extended Village), to select by secret ballot of all electors present at the meeting, the Elected Community Councillors from the persons duly nominated in accordance with the rules set out in Annexe 4 to the Scheme

or

if the number of persons duly nominated equals the prescribed number of Elected Community Councillors, to declare the persons nominated duly elected

or

if the number of persons duly nominated is less than the prescribed number of Elected Community Councillors, to declare the persons nominated duly elected and to call for further nominations of electors from the meeting. Any further nominations so received shall be elected by a secret ballot of all electors present at the meeting, to bring the number of Elected Community Councillors to the prescribed number.

All Notices shall be published in the local press.

- (vi) Notwithstanding the provisions set out in (i)-(v) above, the use of postal and/or electronic voting may be implemented at the discretion of the Council in consultation with the community council.

11. Ordinary Community Council Elections

- (i) In the year in which the Elected Councillors for any area elected at an Initial Election retire and every four years thereafter, each Community Council shall organise an Ordinary Election. In the case of Arran Community Council, a separate election meeting shall be arranged for each Extended Village as set out in Paragraph 9 above.
- (iii) Ordinary Elections shall, at the discretion of the Council, take place during the months of September, October or November of the year in which an election is due to be held. The Community Council, in making arrangements for an Ordinary Election, shall be responsible for following the procedure set out in Paragraph 10(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) above.

12. Election of Community Council Officers

- (i) At the close of each Community Council meeting held to conduct either the Initial Election or an Ordinary Election of Elected Community Councillors, the Elected Community Councillors shall meet to elect from their own number the undernoted officers. In the case of Arran Community Council, the election of Community Council Officers shall instead take place at a meeting in Lamlash as soon as possible following the Initial or Ordinary Elections Village Meetings.
- (ii) The following office bearers shall be elected:-
  - (a) a Community Chair or, pending the future election of a Community Chair, an Interim Chair;
  - (b) either a Community Secretary and a Community Treasurer or a Community Secretary/Treasurer; and
  - (c) such other officers as are deemed necessary.
- (iii) Each nomination for office shall require to be proposed and seconded by an Elected Community Councillor. In the event of there being more than one nomination for a single office, a vote shall be taken by a show of hands and the nominee with the highest number of votes declared elected. In the event of an equality of votes, the election shall be determined by the drawing of lots.

13. The Role of Community Council Officers

(i) Community Chair

The Community Chair or, in his/her absence, another member of the Community Council nominated by the Community Council, shall preside at all meetings of the Community Council. The Chair shall be responsible for the conduct of the meeting and his/her decision in matters of debate, shall be final.

(ii) Community Secretary

The Community Secretary shall be the official correspondent of the Community Council and shall be responsible for the preparation and circulation of notices of meetings, reports, minutes, etc. The Secretary shall ensure that a copy of the Minutes of that meeting is forwarded to the Council for its interest and displayed at the venue(s) where the Community Council ordinarily meets. The Secretary shall also keep the Council advised of any changes to the membership of the Community Council, including office bearers.

(iii) Community Treasurer

The Community Treasurer shall keep accounts of all financial transactions of the Community Council and shall be responsible to the Community Council for the proper administration of its financial affairs in accordance with Paragraph 18 of this Scheme. The Treasurer shall ensure that the Community Council's accounts are presented timeously to the Council for the purposes of auditing.

14. Removal from Office of a Community Councillor or Community Council Officer

- (1) A Community Councillor may remove from office any Community Council officer, subject to a vote of no confidence first being carried by a majority of the current membership of Elected (or Co-opted) Members of the Community Council.
- (2) If a Community Councillor fails to attend meetings of the Community Council for a period of six months, he/she will cease to be a member of the Community Council, unless prior approval of his/her absence is given by the Community Council.

15. Meetings of the Community Council

- (1) Each Community Council shall be required to meet at least six times a year and may otherwise meet as and when it deems necessary to pursue the purposes of the Community Council as set out in Paragraph of the Scheme.
- (2) Three clear days before a meeting of the Community Council, a notice of meeting, specifying the business to be transacted, shall be issued by the Community Secretary to members of the Community Council, the local Elected Member and the local press and posted on a local notice board. Want of the service of a notice of meeting to an individual Community Councillor shall not, however, affect the validity of a meeting.
- (3) Meetings shall be open to the public and, at the discretion of the Chair, members of the public may be invited to address the meeting on a particular subject.
- (4) No business shall be transacted at a Community Council meeting unless a quorum of Elected and Co-opted Community Councillors (excluding Appointed Advisors) is present. The quorum shall be one-fourth of the membership of the Community Council (excluding Appointed Advisors), rounded up, or a minimum of three Elected/Co-opted Community Councillors, whichever is the greater, as set out in Annexe 1 to the Scheme.

16. Appointment of Committees by Community Councils

Each Community Council may appoint such Committee or Committees as it deems necessary to be concerned with, and report to the Community Council on, any specified part of the affairs of the Community. In particular, each Community Council may appoint such a Committee for a particular part of the area of that Community Council. Each Committee shall consist primarily of a number of Elected (or Co-opted) Community Councillors, but the Community Council may also appoint to it such other persons (whether or not they are Appointed Advisors) as it deems appropriate, provided always that the number of such persons does not at any time exceed one half of the number of Elected (or Co-opted) Community Councillors appointed to the Committee.

17. Extraordinary Community Meetings and/or Village Meetings

Each Community Council may at any time call an Extraordinary Community Meeting to ascertain the views of the Community on any particular matter if it is satisfied that the matter is sufficiently important to justify such a meeting and that there is doubt as to the views of the local community.

18. Finance

(1) Each Community Council shall have powers to raise funds for its purposes in any of the ways in which voluntary organisations raise funds. In addition, the Council propose to give each Community Council financial assistance as follows:-

(i) Ordinary Expenditure

North Ayrshire Council will, following satisfactory audit of Community Council accounts, pay to each Community Council an annual grant (being a fixed sum for each Community Council, a sum per thousand of the population of the area of the Community Council or a sum determined by such other mechanism as the Council may decide) towards the cost of all ordinary administration, including the cost of publishing notices, stationery, copying, postage, Remembrance Day wreaths and administrative expenses associated with community consultation exercises, and the cost of meeting any claims for out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred by Community Councillors with the knowledge and approval of the Community Council. The grant payable to Community Councils will be set each year by the Council having regard to available resources, the other demands on these and experience as to the necessary running costs of Community Councils. If any Community Council has, at the end of any financial year, an unexpended and uncommitted balance of annual grant previously given to it by the Council, that balance shall be deducted from whatever sum would otherwise have been due to it for the following year.

(ii) Extraordinary Expenditure

Any Community Council wishing additional financial assistance from the Council (whether in the form of a grant or a loan) to meet some or all of the cost of a particular project(s), will require to submit to the Council for consideration, full particulars of the project(s) with detailed estimates of the costs involved.

(2) Accounts

Each Community Council shall be bound to keep proper financial records, fully vouched, to prepare annual accounts and to submit these to the Council.

(3) Auditor

The Assistant Chief Executive (Finance) of North Ayrshire Council shall ex officio be the Auditor of each Community Council and, as such, his/her duty shall be to ensure that the accounts of the Community Council are fully and accurately stated and properly vouched. For this purpose, he/she shall be entitled to call for and inspect all financial records, vouchers and accounts at any time.

19. Clerical and Typing Assistance

The Council will, subject to the exigencies of the service, provide the Community Council Secretary and Treasurer (or Secretary/Treasurer) with necessary clerical and typing assistance by Council staff but, having regard to the limited functions of Community Councils, the Council is satisfied that no Community Council in North Ayrshire will ordinarily require the exclusive services of full- or part-time staff and it will not ordinarily provide for, or offer financial assistance towards, the cost of any such staff employed by a Community Council.

20. Meeting Accommodation

The Council will, subject to the exigencies of the service, provide each Community Council with suitable meeting accommodation for a maximum of 15 lets per year free of charge and storage accommodation, but it does not consider that any Community Council in North Ayrshire will ordinarily require the exclusive everyday use of offices or other premises, vehicles or equipment and it will not ordinarily provide for, or offer financial assistance towards the cost of, any offices, premises, vehicles or equipment.

21. Keeping Community Councils and North Ayrshire Council Informed

(1) North Ayrshire Council will supply to each Community Council, free of charge, one copy of the Minutes of Meetings of Committees. Each Community Council will, within a period of three weeks following a Community Council meeting, supply North Ayrshire Council, free of charge, with one copy of the Minutes of their Meetings.

- (2) The Community Secretary or Secretary/Treasurer shall keep the Council informed as to (a) the names and addresses of Elected (and/or Co-opted) Community Councils; (b) which of these have been elected as Community Council Officers; and (c) the names of any Appointed Advisors, with an indication, if applicable, for the local organisations or groups of organisations they represent.
- (3) Where a Community Council requires any information about any matter from North Ayrshire Council, it will require to write with a request for the information to the Chief Officer of the Service concerned or, if in any doubt as to which Service is concerned, to the Chief Executive. The Chief Officer or Chief Executive will then provide the information requested UNLESS, exceptionally (a) this would be contrary to an instruction of the Council; (b) in the reasonable opinion of the Chief Officer or Chief Executive, the provision of such information might be in breach of the terms of, or fall within the exemptions set out in, any legislation relating to Freedom of Information, Access to Information or Data Protection; or (c) for some definite reason he/she believes the provision of the requested information to be inappropriate. In the latter event, the Chief Officer will report to the next meeting of the appropriate Committee of the Council the nature of the request and his/her reason for refusing it.
- (4) Where a Community Council wishes to discuss any matter with the Council, the Community Secretary or Secretary/Treasurer should, in the first instance, advise the local Councillor(s) concerned. The Councillor, or if he/she considers it necessary or desirable, may ask the Chief Executive or the Chief Officer to nominate an appropriate officer to accompany him/her to the meeting. In any event, a Community Council may directly invite an Officer of the Council to attend a Community Council meeting for a specific purpose and attendance will be considered, subject to the exigencies of the service.
- (5) North Ayrshire Council shall not supply to any Community Council any information about the private affairs of any individual, firm or company and shall not discuss with any Community Council such affairs and shall in all matters preserve the confidentiality of information supplied in confidence.
- (6) Where a Community Council wishes any information from, or to discuss any matter with, any other public authority to enable it to discharge its functions under Paragraph 2 of the Scheme, the Community Secretary or Secretary/Treasurer shall write to the Chief Executive or to the appropriate Chief Officer for that authority, requesting the information or an opportunity for discussion.
- (7) Each Community Council shall give the Press and local elected Member(s) of North Ayrshire Council, notice of all Community Council meetings and the Press and local elected Member(s) shall be entitled to attend.

22. Action on Behalf of the Community

- (1) Where the Council see a need for local action of any kind on behalf of any Community, it will ordinarily refer the matter to the Community Council, unless the Council determines that the matter is more appropriately dealt with by some other local organisation or mechanism.

- (2) No Community Council shall be entitled to sponsor candidates for election either as Elected Community Councillors or to any other public office.

23. Constitutions of Community Councils

Each Community Council shall be entitled to draw up for itself a Constitution and Standing Orders consistent with the provisions of this Scheme. Financial and other assistance from the Council will depend on the Constitution and Standing Orders obtaining the approval of the Council. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld. The Council will be willing, on request, to supply a model constitution for guidance and advice on the drawing up of standing orders.

24. Dissolution

- (1) In the event that (a) the number of casual vacancies occurring in any Community Council within one term of office exceeds one half of the Elected Community Councillors (in accordance with Annexe 1) or (b) the Community Council fails to meet and/or be quorate on six occasions each year, the Community Council shall immediately inform North Ayrshire. The Council may allow, or refuse to allow, the Community Council to co-opt a further member or members or, notwithstanding the provisions of this Scheme, issue instruct the Community Council to take such action as it deems appropriate.
- (2) If the Council approves the dissolution of a Community Council, such funds as are vested in the Community Council at the date of its dissolution shall transfer to North Ayrshire Council. The Council shall apply the funds for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Community Council area, provided a preference is, in any event, given to the transfer of such funds to a successor Community Council established in accordance with the terms of this Scheme. Community Councils may, prior to formal dissolution, dispose of any assets purchased solely as a result of local fund-raising schemes, subject to consultation with the Council.

25. Review of Schemes

In terms of Section 53 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973, as amended, the Council may, from time to time, review the Scheme having regard to changing circumstances and any representations made to it. If a review is considered appropriate, the Council shall give public notice and invite representations. After considering any representations received, the Council may amend the Scheme in accordance with the notified proposals. Alternatively, the Council may amend its proposals to take into account representations received and give public notice of the amended proposals with an invitation to make representations. Thereafter, the Council may amend the Scheme accordingly.

ANNEXE 4

Rules for the Conduct of a Secret Ballot of the Electors Present as a Community Meeting or Village Meeting held for that Purpose

1. The Chair shall be the duly elected Chair of the Community Council or, in his/her absence, a member of the Community Council nominated by him or, should no member be so nominated, such other person nominated by those present and eligible to vote at the meeting.
2. The Chair will explain that only those persons who are electors (i.e. whose names appear in the current Electoral Register for the area in question) are allowed to vote and will ask any person present who are not electors to identify themselves. He/she will ask any persons present to challenge whether any other person present is an elector. Any such challenge will be determined by reference to the current Electoral Register.
3. The Chair will then invite the Meeting to appoint such number of enumerators as shall, in the opinion of the Chair, be required for the purposes of the ballot.
4. The Chair will then arrange for each elector present at the Meeting to be issued with a ballot paper containing the names of all candidates duly nominated for election and will invite each elector to use the ballot paper to vote in secret for a number of candidates equal to or less than the number of persons to be elected. The enumerators will then collect the completed ballot papers and immediately count the number of completed ballot papers returned and the number of votes cast for each candidate and advise the Chair accordingly.
5. The Chair will then announce the result of the ballot and declare duly elected those candidates who received the highest number of votes in descending order up to the total number of places to be filled.
6. If there is an equal number of votes cast for a number of persons for any remaining places to be filled, the Chair will arrange for each elector present to be issued with a further copy of the ballot paper containing the names of all the persons originally duly nominated. He/she will then ask each elector to delete from the names on the ballot paper the names of any of the original candidates who have already been declared elected and will then invite each elector to use the ballot paper to vote in secret for a number of the remaining candidates equal to or less than the number of persons still remaining to be elected. The enumerators will then collect the completed ballot papers and immediately count the number of completed ballot papers returned and the number of votes cast for each candidate and advise the Chair accordingly. The Chair will then declare the result of the ballot for the remaining places.
7. In the event of a further equality of votes cast for any remaining places to be filled, the Meeting shall proceed to a third and, if necessary, to further ballots all conducted as indicated in Rules 4,5 and 6 until the total number of candidates declared elected equals the number of persons to be elected.
8. The Chair will then declare the Meeting closed insofar as the election of Community Councillors in concerned.

During the course of the Meeting, the Chair shall, in his/her discretion, answer any questions and resolve any complaints or grievances arising regarding the conduct of the ballot or any other matter whatsoever and his/her decision thereon shall be final and shall not be open to discussion. All questions, complaints and grievances shall be drawn to the attention of the Chair as they arise and shall not be entertaining after the Chair has declared the Meeting closed insofar as the election of Community Councillors is concerned.

ANNEXE 5

Code of Conduct for Community Councillors

The Code of Conduct for Community Councillors is based largely on the Code of Conduct for local authority councillors and relevant public bodies as provided for in The Ethical Standards in Public Life, etc. (Scotland) Act 2000.

Community Councillors, as elected representatives of their communities, have a responsibility to make sure that they are familiar with, and that their actions comply with, the principles set out in this Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct and its principles, shall apply to all Community Councillors and those representing the Community Council. These principles are as follows:

- Service to the Community (Public Service)
- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability and Stewardship
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership
- Respect

Service to the Community

As a Community Councillor you have a duty to act in the interests of the local community, which you have been elected or nominated to represent. You also have a duty to act in accordance with the remit of the Councils Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils, as set out by your local authority under the terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973.

You have a duty to establish and reflect, through the Community Council, the views of the community as a whole, on any issue, irrespective of personal opinion.

You should ensure that you are, within reason, accessible to your local community and local residents. Various mechanisms to allow the general community to express their views, i.e. suggestion boxes, community surveys, opinion polls should, where possible, be made available.

Selflessness

You have a duty to take decisions solely in terms of the interest of the community that you represent. You must not use your position as a Community Councillor to gain financial, material, political or other personal benefit for yourself, family or friends.

Integrity

You must not place yourself under any financial or other obligation to any individual or organisation that might reasonably be thought to influence you in your representation of your community. If you have any private and/or personal interest in a matter to be considered by the Community Council, you have a duty to declare this and if deemed necessary by other members, withdraw from discussions and the decision making process with regard to that matter.

You should not accept gifts or hospitality that may be seen to influence or be intended to influence your opinion or judgement. The offer and/or receipt of any gifts, regardless of form, should always be reported to and noted by the Secretary of the Community Council.

Objectivity

In all your decisions and opinions as a Community Councillor, you must endeavour to represent the overall views of your community, taking account of information which is provided to you or is publicly available, assessing its merit and gathering information as appropriate, whilst laying aside personal opinions or preferences.

You may be appointed or nominated by your Community Council to serve as a member of another representative body. You should ensure that this Code of Conduct is observed when carrying out the duties of the other body.

You are free to have political and/or religious affiliations; however you must ensure that you represent the interests of your community and Community Council and not the interests of a particular political party or other group.

Accountability and Stewardship

You are accountable for the decisions and actions that you take on behalf of your community through the Community Council. You must ensure that the Community Council uses its resources prudently and in accordance with the law.

Community Councillors will individually and collectively ensure that the business of the Community Council is conducted according to the Council's Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils and this Code of Conduct.

Community Councillors will individually and collectively ensure that annual accounts are produced showing the financial undertakings of the Community Council as set out in the Councils Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils. They must also ensure that all resources are used efficiently, effectively and fairly and are used strictly for the purposes of Community Council business and for no other purpose.

Minutes of Meetings recording all actions and decisions made should be produced and circulated to all members of the Community Council as soon as possible after each meeting.

Any breach of the Council's Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils as set out by your local authority under the terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 may be reported to your local authority to determine what action, if necessary, should be taken.

Openness

You have a duty to be open about your decisions, actions and representations, giving reasons for these where appropriate. You should be able to justify your decisions and be confident that you have not been unduly influenced by the views and/or opinions of others.

If you have dealings with the Media, members of the public, or others not directly involved in your Community Council, you should ensure that an explicit distinction is made between the expression of your personal views and opinions from any views or statement made about or on behalf of the Community Council.

Honesty

You have a duty to act honestly. You also have an obligation to work within the law at all times. You must declare any private interest relating to your Community Council duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the interest of the community and the Community Council.

Leadership

You have a duty to promote and support the principles of this Code of Conduct by leadership and example, to maintain and strengthen the community's trust and confidence in the integrity of the Community Council and its members in representing the views and needs of the local area. You must also promote social inclusion and challenge discrimination in any form.

You should act to assist the Community Council, as far as possible, in the interest of the whole community that it serves. Where particular interest groups' concerns are in conflict with those of other groups or other areas you should help to ensure that the Community Council is aware of them.

Respect

You must respect fellow members of your Community Council and those that you represent, treating them with courtesy, respect and in a non-discriminatory manner at all times. This should extend to any person, regardless of their position, you have dealings with in your capacity as a Community Councillor.

Recognition should be given to the contribution of everyone participating in the work of the Community Council. You must comply with Equal Opportunities legislation and ensure that equality of opportunity be given to every participant to have their knowledge, opinion, skill and experience taken into account.

You should ensure that confidential material, including details about individuals, is treated as such and that it is handled with dignity and discretion and is not used for personal, malicious or corrupt purposes.
